Boat on Which Many Persons Had Narrow Escape Only a Few Days Ago.

The steamer Grand Republic, showing the cabin (at top) as it appeared after the fire and her captain, Edward Carman. While on her way from Rockaway Beach to New York recently the ship, a sister of the ill-fated General Slocum, on which over a thousand lives were lost several years ago, caught fire and immediately the hundred and fifty persons aboard were panic-stricken. The captain and crew, however, succeeded in preventing any of the passengers from jumping overboard and the ship was rushed toward the dock of the Crescent Athletic club, in Bay Ridge, where the passengers were taken off. The fire started from a defective fuse in the cook's pantry.

TAFT WANTS LOEB FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP.

Approves the New York Customs Collector as Successor to Hughes—Roosevelt as State Leader.

Beverly Mass., July 12.—The president has frankly told Wm. Loeb that the Republican nomination seemed to be coming his way and that it would take more than a fishing trip to the Rocky mountains to stop it.

The former secretary to president Roosevelt left Beverly Hills for New York, leaving the impression here that if it became absolutely necessary for him to take the Republican nomination he would do so and make a whirlwind campaign.

The mention of the New York situation was incidental to a talk on general Mr. Taft is not interfering in the New politics between the president and Mr. Loeb.

York situation in any way. He and Mr. Loeb are close friends and whenever Mr. Loeb's name has been mentioned in connection with the New York governorship he always has enthusiastically approved the suggestion.

Theodore Roosevelt went today to New York to meet governor Hughes and bring him back to Oyster Bay in his automobile. The conference with Governor Hughes is to be concerned primarily with New York state politics with particular reference to the formulation of a plan for enacting direct nominations legislation.

It has been pointed out that the enactment of such a bill as the Gold worth nominations will be a task worthy of the prowess of the ex-president, since it would involve subjugation of the Republican organization which has opposed and defeated the bill.

Since Col. Roosevelt has thrown himself into the thick of the fight and since Governor Hughes has shown no intention of relinquishing his place on the supreme court bench to run again, the deduction is made that with the governor out of it, the contest will be carried on by the fight that he has made his own by becoming in person the active leader of the so-called progressive Republicans of the state.

TROOPS TO LEAVE THE PORT TUESDAY FOR CAMP.

A portion of the 23rd infantry, stationed at Fort Bliss, will leave the city Wednesday on a special train over the G. H. for Del Rio, from which point the troops will march overland to Leon Springs, near San Antonio, where they will instruct the Texas state troops, who will pitch their annual summer camp there. The train equipment for the special will be sent to Fort Bliss Tuesday afternoon for loading.

HARD TO PLEASE. Regarding the Morning Cup.

"Oh how hard it was to part with coffee, but the continued trouble with constipation and belching was such that I finally brought myself to leave it off."

"Then the question was, what should we use for the morning drink? Tea was worse for us than coffee; chocolate and cream were soon tired of; milk was not liked very well, and hot water we could not endure."

"About two years ago we struck upon Postum and have never been without it since."

"We have seven children. Our baby now eighteen months old would not take milk, so we tried Postum and found she liked it and agreed with her perfectly. She is today, and has been, one of the healthiest babies in the state."

"I use about two-thirds Postum and one-third milk and a teaspoon of sugar, and put it into her bottle. If you could have seen her eyes sparkle and hear her say 'good' today when I gave it to her, you would believe me that she likes it."

"If I was mother of an infant's home, every child would be raised on Postum. Many of my friends say, 'You are looking so well!' I reply, 'I am well; I drink Postum. I have no more trouble with constipation, and know that I owe my good health to God and Postum.'"

"I am writing this letter because I want to tell you how much good Postum has done us, but if you knew how I shrink from publicity, you would not publish this letter, at least not over my name."

"Read the little book 'The Road to Wellville,' in 'Pills, There's a Reason.'"

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC FILES 40,000 MORTGAGE

Plans Arizona Eastern Extension—May Be Southwestern Block.

As soon as permission is obtained from the government to cross 18 miles of the White Mountain Indian reservation, construction work will begin on the Gila Canyon extension of the Arizona Eastern railway, one of the Harriman lines. The line will be extended from San Carlos to Winkelman, a distance of 35 miles, which will give the Arizona Eastern a run from Bowie to Maricopa through Phoenix. This announcement was made at the office of Eyes Randolph at Tucson, according to a dispatch from that city.

That the Arizona Eastern and affiliated lines mean business is evidenced by the fact that a mortgage has been filed with the county recorder at Tucson to back up a bond issue of $40,000,000. The mortgages are the Arizona Eastern railway, the Gila Valley, Globe & Northern, the Maricopa & Phoenix railroad and the Arizona & Colorado railroad, and the mortgagee is the Farmers Loan & Trust company of New York City. The mortgage for the bond was signed by Judge H. S. Lovett, president of the Harriman line.

According to the provisions of the documents filed at Tucson the Arizona Eastern, which officially includes the other roads named in the mortgage, is to have for immediate issue bonds to the extent of $7,000,000. There is also to be held ready for issue bonds sufficient for the retirement of the debt of the Gila Valley, Globe & Northern road of New York, in the sum of $1,439,000. The remaining sum is to be used in extension work, taking over other roads and other improvement work on lines constructed. Among the purposes of the road are said to be the completion of the Buckeye extension and the building of an extension to Durango, Colo., and the erection of an office building at Tucson.

An interesting speculation that has arisen as a result of the publicity given the mortgage for $40,000,000, is whether the Arizona Eastern, affiliated with the Southwestern's chief competitor, the Southern Pacific, will not beat the Southwestern to Gila canyon and prevent the Southwestern from reaching Phoenix by that route. The Southwestern has surveyors in the field marking out a prospective route extension to Phoenix and should it decide to build it, there may be a repetition of the construction gang war at Courtland, Ariz.

while it would not be a violation of the law for trainmen to purchase vegetables and carry them aboard the caboose for use on the caboose, it is a violation of the law to bring vegetables into El Paso for use here.

AMUSEMENTS.

AIRDOME'S NEW BILL.

"The Girl and the Photo" drew many laughs and a great deal of applause at the Airdome Monday evening, and ought to prove a pleasing entertainer this week.

"Gee, but Ain't America a Grand Old Place?" by Miss Fannie Adler and chorus, was the best thing in the entire list of specialties, almost all of them good, but it was another of Frank Rich's prize electrical numbers, showing an illuminated flag and a lot of pretty girls completely wrapped up in old glory. Miss Adler only had a bit of a part in the show, but she made up for the disappointment of her friends in this line, by being in a number of specialties, and, as usual, not one of them failed to please.

All the specialties went well, however, and this is particularly true of Chas. Le Roy's singing and eccentric dancing in the first act and the sextet number in the second act. LeRoy's and Miss Shattuck's duet was also a hit, and deservedly so.

James Peck seemingly forgot his love for himself long enough to realize that there was somebody else around and really sang his song pleasantly. His work in the cast was also the best that he has yet done. But there was no fault to find with the acting of any of the company, even Miss Jeanne MacKenzie from the chorus coming on with a bit which she handled well.

Of course Harry Devere's bartone solo made a hit; it always does.

And the girls had a lot of new costumes.

Collectively, the different specialties and scenes that go to make up the two hours' performance, are as good as any seen this year at the Airdome.

"DOCTORS' NIGHT" AT WIGWAM.

Tonight is "doctors' night" at the Wigwam. The feature film is "Sleeping Sickness," the dreaded African disease. It shows micro cinematographic observations of a rat inoculated with "sleeping sickness" germs. It is interesting to the laymen, but doubly so to the up-to-date physician. Two other good pictures will be shown.

The Crystal has two strong dramas.

IMPRISONMENT OF AMERICAN DISCUSSED.

State Department Will Hold Nicaragua to Account—Madriz Is Levying Assessments on His Op.

Washington, D. C., July 12.—Several consultations were held at the state department on the possible action of the United States in connection with the removal of William Pittman, the American engineer, from Bluefield to Managua, Nicaragua. Pittman had been held for several weeks by the Madriza forces as a prisoner of war. It is believed that the department will be content with instructing United States consuls Overseas at Managua to insist on fair treatment for Pittman, and to guard against injustice.

Representatives of Madriza here claim that the Managua government was under no obligations to keep Pittman at Bluefields. They point out that as early as March this government was notified that Madriza had ordered his subordinates not to act summarily with Americans captured, but to send them forthwith to Managua.

Mail reports received at the department of the effort of Madriza to raise money. Forced loans, it is said, are being exacted, particularly from those suspected of hostility to the Madriza government. The most frequent procedure is reported to be to make a demand for a loan, one-half to be paid within 24 hours and the rest in three days, with an increase of 25 percent if payment is not forthcoming.

Police or soldiers surround the house of the victim and shut off all means of securing food if the money is not paid. In one instance it is said the loan demanded amounted to $10,000.

J. G. McNary has returned from a visit with his family at his country home in Mountain Park, N. M.

THE SILLY SEASON

man's wall next winter. It won't appeal to your sense of humor, then. It will rouse bitter shame in you.

Because it is Summer, don't be silly enough to get into a flirtation with some good looking man that you meet on the train or a boat. He may be all right, and again he may not, but at any rate you will have cheapened yourself in his eyes. Just remember that it doesn't take much handling to rub the bloom off a peach in July or August.

Beware of the Moonlight.

Because it is Summer, and you are staying at some romantic spot and it happens to be moonlight, don't be silly enough to get into a flirtation with some man of whom you know nothing about, as there are all kinds of such men on the lookout for just such foolish little girls as you are, and many a tragedy, that wrecks a woman's life, begins at a Summer resort. If a man tells you that he loves you, just tell him to wait, and come back and tell you that over again when the cold, hard, practical Winter has set in, and that you will give him his answer then—when papa has taken his pedigree, and his rating from Bradstreet's.

Because it is Summer, and his wife is away, don't be silly enough to get into any entanglement with a married man. Suppose he is a lawyer, or a doctor, or the office of Public Comforter. Suppose he does want to take you about the roof gardens, and outdoor restaurants and to ride in his automobile. You can buy pleasure too high, little girl, and it is better to stay at home and eat a stuffy dinner in a stuffy flat than it is to have that sinking feeling in your heart when the man's wife comes home in the Fall, and to know that the people are gossiping about you behind your back.

Because it is Summer, Mrs. Married Woman, and you are off at a Summer resort, don't get gay and giddy, and amuse yourself by trying to cut the girls out of the few leas. It may be a temptation just to see whether or not you have lost your rabbit's foot as a charm. It may be—may it is—actually thrilling to have a man tell you that you are the most beautiful and fascinating creature on earth, and to have one more nibble at the sweetmeats of romance, but you know what the old scandal mongers who form the rocking chair brigade on the gallery of a Summer hotel say about a married woman who flirts.

Therefore, don't be silly enough to buy a few days' diversion at a price that may cost you your character, and your husband's faith in your loyalty.

Also, Mrs. Married Woman, don't be silly enough to go off and spend three or four months in the Summer, placidly enjoying yourself under the impression that your husband is sitting up at home alone in his dreary flat, holding your photograph in his hand, and counting the days until you come back. He isn't employed in that manner. Far from it. When the cat is away the mice will play, and if there is one time in the world that it is expedient for a wife to look after her fences it is in the good old Summer time.

Go away and have a little change and give your husband a rest from your society, but don't stay too long. That is, if you don't want to find a husband whose affections have been purloined in your absence.

Above all, mothers, because it is the Summer time, when we all feel like taking things easy, don't relax your watchfulness over your girls. Don't let them go off unchaperoned on excursions with young men. Don't let them go to Summer resorts unless you can go along also. They are young and inexperienced, and the call of love and life is peculiarly potent when the blood is warmed by the sun, and the easy familiarity of the Summer makes a tabernacle slide down which many a good but foolish young girl has gone to her ruin.

Just remember that, and it may save you the bitter regrets later on.

Don't add to the silly season your own criminal foolishness.
